Kittens

Two little kittens, one stormy night,
Began to quarried, and then to fight,
One had a mouse, the other had none,
And that's the way the quarrel begun.
'I' will have that mouse, said the biggest cat,
You will have that mouse,
We will see about that

I will have that mouse said the little one.
I told you before it was a stormy night
When these two little kittens began to fight,
The old woman seized her sweeping broom,
And swept the two kittens right out of the room.
The ground was covered with frost and snow,
And the two little kittens had nowhere to go,
So they laid them down on the mat at the door,
While the old woman finished sweeping the floor.
Then they crept in, as quiet as mice
All wet with the snow and as cold as ice
For they found it was better, that stormy night
To lie down and sleep than to quarrel and fight.
